

312 ACTS OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL (COLONIAL).

1697.

25 March. [670.] [The Victuallers of the Navy are to put on board the transport ships bound for Newfoundland three months provisions of the quality usually allowed to seamen, with water cask proportionable, for 450 land soldiers, and to take care that the masters are furnished with necessary and extra necessary money to provide candles, firing, platters, spoons etc. for the use of the men, as pursers are allowed on men of war.]

[p. 597.]

28 March. [A similar order for stores and accomodations for sixty men belonging to the Ordnance Office on these ships. The 60 men are to sail, 35 in the Katherine, 15 in the Oxenden, and 10 in the Ninion and Benjamin.]

[p. 602.]

8 April. [671.] [Two private Jamaica bills referred to the Council of Trade.—C.S.P. X. 912.]

[p. 604.]

8 April. [672.] [On a memorial from the Admiralty, the Benjamin, given by the enemy at Newfoundland to convey home several English seamen and inhabitants there, is made a free ship, and the money arising from the sale is to be for the sole benefit of those to whom the ship was so given.]

[p. 606.]

15 April. [673.] [The report of the Council of Trade as to salaries is referred to the Treasury.—C.S.P. X. 941.]

[p. 609.]

15 April. [674.] [The appeal of Anthony Peterson of Nevis, planter, from a judgment of the Court of Nisi Prius there in favour of his sister Christian, relating to part of a plantation there, which he claims to be contrary to the will of his father and to law, is referred to the Committee for Appeals.]

[p. 610.]

8 July. [The Committee appoint the 15th instant for hearing the appeal.]

[Vol. V. p. 37.]

(1698.)

4 Aug. [In accordance with a report of the Committee of 21 Dec. 1697, his appeal is dismissed, and the judgment of the Nevis Court upheld and confirmed.]

[Vol. V. p. 213.]