

1727.

of the Leeward Islands, has removed him from his offices of Chief Justice of King's Bench and Common Pleas and Chief Baron of the Exchequer, and granted the same to Jeremiah Browne, Esq., and seeking to have a copy of the reasons for this action which have been transmitted by the Lieutenant Governor to the Board of Trade, and that the commission to Mr. Browne may be superseded; is referred to the Board of Trade, together with a copy of the protest of three of the Council of St. Christopher against Browne's appointment.]

[p. 183.]

[Committee for Plantation Affairs consider the matter and refer it to the Board of Trade, who are to give Greathead a copy of the reasons transmitted by the Governor.] 21 Nov.

[p. 187.]

[137.] [Appearance for Sir W. Codrington to the appeal of James Wetherill entered by Mr. John Sharpe, solicitor.] 13 Dec. Antigua.

[p. 187.]

[Reference to the Committee for Appeals of the petition of James Wetherill and Margaret his wife that a short day be appointed for hearing their appeal from an order of the Antigua Chancery, 10 April, 1727, whereby their plea in bar to Sir W. Codrington's bill against them for recovery of several negroes, cattle, &c., was not allowed.] 14 Dec.

[p. 192.]

(1728.)

[Order reversing the order, on Committee report of 21 May.] 12 June.

And that the Appellants said Plea should stand for an Answer, with liberty for Sir William Codrington the Plaintiff in this Cause to take Exceptions thereto, and that the benefit of the said Plea should be saved to the hearing of the Cause Subject to the Determination of the said Court of Chancery thereon.

[pp. 306, 311.]

[138.] [An Antigua Act of 1719 for the better securing and confirming the title of George Thomas, nephew and heir to William Thomas, late of the said island, deceased, to certain 14 Dec. Antigua.]