

1723.

to the petition of Mr. Partridge and Mr. Richardson, and that he may be heard before any determination be made.]

[p. 464.]

(1724.)

[Committee on consideration of the representation and petition] defer the further consideration of this affair till my Lord Westmorland is present.

22 Jan.

[p. 471.]

(1724.)

[A representation of the Board of Trade of 6 May urging the repeal of an Act of 1723 for apportioning and assessing a tax of 6,205*l.* 15*s.* 7½*d.* is also referred to the Committee.]

12 May.

[p. 525.]

(1724.)

[Committee appoint 21 May for consideration of the Acts and petitions.]

15 May.

[p. 528.]

(1724.)

[Committee recommend remission of the tax and release of the imprisoned Quakers.]

21 May.

[p. 530.]

(1724.)

[Orders accordingly. The obnoxious taxes were 100*l.* and 72*l.* 11*s.* imposed on the towns of Dartmouth and Tiverton in 1722] for the maintenance of Presbyterian Ministers who were not of their perswasion.

2 June.

[p. 532.]

[52.] This day Mr. Thomas Tryon Sollicitor, Entered an Appearance for Edward Chester, Respondent in the appeale of Richard Rigby and his Wife from Antegoa.

23 Oct.

Antigua.

[p. 346.]

(1724.)

[Reference to the Committee for Appeals of Rigby's petition that, as the proceedings are transmitted, a short day be appointed for hearing his appeal from a decree of the Antigua Chancery, 19 April, 1723, in favour of Edward Chester, William Yeomans and others relating to the execution by Yeomans of a letter of attorney from Rigby to sell an estate in Antigua. Similar reference of Chester's petition that the appeal be dismissed with costs for non-prosecution, as about thirteen months have elapsed since it was admitted.]

4 July.

[p. 566.]

(1724.)

[Committee : Rigby to pay Chester 5*l.* costs for delay, and the case to be heard on Wednesday next.]

25 Nov.

[V. p. 16.]