

[483.] [Reference to the Committee of the petition of Samuel Palmer, Esq., of Barbados, for a short day for hearing his appeal from a Chancery decree, 12 July, 1738, and subsequent orders of 3 Oct., 1738, and 23 Jan., and 21 Feb., 1739, and from a partition made by commissioners appointed by the Chancery Court, 8 March, 1739, on a bill filed by William Sealy, Esq., relating to the partition of an estate heretofore in the possession of Thomas and William Baldwyn as tenants in common in fee with several buildings and utensils thereon.]

1739-40.
22 Nov.
Barbados.

[p. 419.] (1740.)

[Cross-appeal of Sealy referred to the Committee.] 12 June.

[VII. p. 104.] (1740.)

[Order in accordance with the Committee report of 22 Nov., dismissing both appeals, and confirming the Chancery decree and the subsequent proceedings. Samuel Palmer had intermarried with Rebecca, widow and executrix of George Hay; William Sealy is son of William Sealy, from whom Rebecca Hay had obtained the land in question many years before, and of Mary Sealy, formerly Mary Baldwyn, spinster.] 27 Nov.

[VII. pp. 218, 247, 248-255, 261.]

[484.] [Reference to the Committee of the petition of Isaac Thibou of Antigua, and Catherine his wife and of her sister Sophia Field, the only surviving children and heirs of the late Rev. James Field, clerk, and of Rachael his wife also deceased, and sisters and heirs of Theophilus Field, Esq., deceased, and of Mary Field, spinster, deceased, for a short day for hearing their appeal from a Chancery order of 13 Nov., 1738, on a bill filed by Ashton Warner, Esq., Attorney General of Antigua, on behalf of the poor of the parishes of St. John and St. Mary, relating to some land and slaves bequeathed to those parishes by Theophilus Field.] 27 Dec.
Antigua.

[p. 495.] (1740.)

[On the report of the Committee of 26 Feb., the appeal is sustained.] 10 Mar.

[pp. 617-32, 660.] 1740.

[485.] [Reference to the Admiralty of a petition of the merchants of London, and another of the corporation, merchants

10 Jan.
Newfoundland.