Chaplain v Cunningham

Barbados

Calendar of State Papers Colonial, America and West Indies, Volume 17: 1699 and Addenda 1621–1698, Cecil Headlam, ed. (London, 1908), no. 544, p. 291–308:

June 22. Council Chamber, Whitehall.	544. The Lords Justices in Council, having considered the report of the Council of Trade upon the petition of Robert Chaplain, of London, merchant, appellant from a sentence passed at Barbados in favour of Captain Alexander Cunningham for £1,200 odd, although the said Cunningham is indebted to the appellant several thousand pounds for arrears of rent, praying, in regard execution hath been granted to the said Cunningham, he may be obliged to give in security to answer the said appeal, or that the said money may remain in the Court at Barbados till the matter be determined by his Majesty in Council, Order that the Council of Trade do write to the Governor and Council of Barbados that if they find such security as is desired by the petitioner may be legally required, that they accordingly take the same, to the end that the appellant may not be defeated of his right. Signed , John Nicholas. Endorsed , Recd. Read June 26, 1699. 1 p. [ Board of Trade . Barbados, 8. No. 8; and 44A. p. 305.]

[The consolidation of the subseries America and West Indies of Colonial Series with the subseries devoted to the East Indies (with additions in some volumes from China, Japan, and Persia) results in volume numbers in the series as reprinted being 5 greater than those found in the Acts of the Privy Council Colonial Series. The text of the calendar, reproduced above, is derived from the website British History Online (<http://www.british-history.ac.uk/>), which is publicly available.]
