 vania. ceedings of the General Assembly in contempt of her Majesty's authority.] [p. 47.]

24 Nov. [1179.] [Reference to the Committee for Appeals of the] Barbados. petition of William Rawlins of Barbados for a short day for hearing his appeal from an order of the Council of the island setting aside a judgment obtained by him against Edward Burke, now deceased.] [p. 48.]

1713.

[Committee minute. Rawlin's petition sets forth that Burke died indebted to Rawlins in 1000*l.*, but his widow, Hester, fraudulently disposed of all the estate save a 99 years lease of 100 acres in the island. On this judgment was levied, the land appraised, and possession delivered and a bill of sale executed to Rawlins by the Provost Marshal : but on 18 Mar. 1712, the Governor and Council, sitting as a Court of Grievances, gave a judgment in favour of John Frere, one of the Council, who pretends that Burke conveyed the lands to his father in trust for Hester, by way of jointure. The estate has been forcibly taken from the appellant, and he is in danger of losing his debt. The Committee recommend that Rawlins be restored to possession of the premises, and that the jointure claimed by Hester Burke be left to the determination of the law.] [p. 112.] 22 May.
