[Committee minute. The appeal of Mrs. Peers, and of John Peers an infant, eldest son of the late Richard, is from a decree of the Barbados Chancery of 3 Oct. 1711 on a bill brought by Barwick against Conrade Adams, attorney of Richard Peers, and John Peers, for stating the accounts of the plantations of Rendezvous and Staplegrove, late belonging to John Peers, deceased, father of Richard, and now held in trust by Barwick for uses mentioned in the will. The Committee offer their opinion that the decree be affirmed,] with this Explanation that Interest be allowed to . . . Barwick for his Disbursements exceeding the profitts of the said plantations, from the filing of his said Bill only, and not before ; And that no Comission be Allowed the said Berwick ; But that the Same be Deducted out of his Accounts, And in Case Interest be otherwise Computed in the Accounts taken, the Same be Altered according to this Determination, and in all other particulars the Accounts stated to the 31th of December 1711, are to stand : And that . . . the Revivor of the said Decree after the Death of the said Richard Peers ; And all proceeding thereupon be Reversed and sett aside, And that in any Account to be futurely taken, the said Berwick be Examined on Oath upon Interrogatorys touching the Items thereof, if the Appellants or either of them desire it.
