

466 ACTS OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL (COLONIAL).

1761.

legacies to Hyde, and the residue to his cousin, William Sanders. Hyde and Gale were his executors. March claimed under the will of William Sanders, who is dead.] [pp. 411, 412-3, 424.]

16 Jan. [436.] [Reference to the Committee of the petition of ^{St.}
 Christopher. Benjamin Herriott, of St. Christopher, late master and owner of the ship Pitt, on behalf of himself and John Willett, merchant of St. Christopher, late owner of the cargo of the said ship, for a day for hearing his appeal from the condemnation of the ship and cargo by the Vice Admiralty Court, 4 Aug., 1759, on a libel filed by Alexander Home, searcher of customs at Basseterre, for shipping goods there to be carried out to sea from thence contrary to divers Acts of Parliament.] [p. 149.]

2 July. [On the Committee report of 27 June, the appeal is dismissed.] [pp. 362, 409, 426.]

28 Jan. [437.] [Reference to the Committee of the petition of Nevis. David Chollet, owner of 600*l.* 6*s.* condemned as part of the cargo of the sloop Hunter, for a day for hearing his appeal from this sentence pronounced in the Vice Admiralty Court of Nevis on a libel filed by Alexander Mackay, waiter of the customs in the port of Nevis.] [p. 185.]

(1762.) [Order in accordance with the Committee report of 16 March,
 5 April. which shows that the appeal set forth] that the said Alexander Mackay on the 23d of February 1760 Exhibited a Libel in the Court of Vice Admiralty of Nevis . . . thereby Stating that between the 1st of February 1760 and the Day of Exhibiting the Libel, certain Persons to the Informant unknown, did at Montserrat (One of the Leeward Charribbee Islands) Load or Cause to be laden on Board the Sloop called the Hunter, whereof John Furlong was Master (being of less than One hundred Tons Vizt. of Eighty Tons burthen) two Casks of Indigo of the growth and produce of his Majestys Plantations in America without having first given Security of One thousand Pounds or having produced a Certificate from the Officers of any Customhouse of Great Britain, England, Ireland, Wales or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed that such