

§ 213 cont.]

.1772.

on the possibility of the Existence of such a Court, because the Instances of such, if any, will be found to stand on principles not applicable to the present Case.

[X. pp. 282, 298.]

[214.] [Reference to the Committee of the petition of Alexander Willock and Arthur Morson for a day for hearing their appeal from a judgment of the Antigua Court of Errors 13 Oct., 1770, in an action by David and Clinton Williams relating to a trading voyage to be made by Clinton Williams in Essequibo and elsewhere in America.] [pp. 41, 42.]

15 Jan.
Antigua.

[On the Committee report of 17 Dec., the appeal is dismissed.] (1773.)

[X. pp. 374, 391.] 31 Dec.

[215.] [Reference to the Committee of the petition of Thomas Crowder for a day for hearing his appeal from an order of injunction by the Jamaica Chancery, 25 May, 1771, in a case between him and Nicholas Bourke, Jasper Hall, Lucius Tucker and Fanny his wife, relating to a plantation mortgaged to the petitioner by Daniel Monro.] [p. 63.]

3 Feb.
Jamaica.

[On the Committee report of 27 March, it is ordered that the injunction be dissolved unless the respondents pay 2,500*l.* into court within six months.] (1773.)

[X. pp. 116-8, 126.] 31 Mar.

[216.] [Reference to the Committee of the petition of Mary Ballard Beckford Beckford, an infant, by Donald Campbell, her next friend, for a day for hearing her appeal from an order of the Jamaica Chancery, 23 Feb., 1771, dismissing her bill against Sarah, Thomas, Samuel, Anthony and Edward Shreyer,] touching the Right and Enjoyment of the waters of a River called Post Maria Eastermost River. [p. 96.]

28 Feb.
Jamaica.

[217.] [Reference to the Committee of the petition of Keylock Rusden, master of the ship Lawrence, on behalf of himself and the owners, William Reynolds, Thomas Gowland, William Smith and others, for a day for hearing his appeal from a judgment of the Jamaica Court of Errors, 11 April, 1770, affirming the condemnation of the ship and cargo by the 28 Feb.

Jamaica.