the executors of John Brown, merchant of Newport, that the appeal of John Bannister, of Middletown, Rhode Island (to which an appearance had been entered for them on 1 Oct.) be dismissed with costs for non-prosecution. Judgments for the defendant had been given in the Rhode Island courts on 21 Nov., 1763, and in March, 1765, on Bannister's action to recover from Brown several sums due to him on book account.]

[pp. 52, 130.]

(1767.) [Bannister's petition for a day for hearing his appeal is referred to the Committee. The name of Isaac Brown appears in place of that of Jane Brown.] [p. 369.]

(1768.) [On the Committee report of 7 July, the appeal is dismissed with 20*l.* stg. costs. The appellants desired to withdraw their petition and the respondents asked that it be dismissed with costs.] [VI. pp. 239, 249.]

1767. [25.] [Reference to the Committee of the petition of Walter 27 Mar. Tullideph for a day for hearing his appeal from a decree of Montserrat. the Montserrat Chancery, 27 Oct., 1766, dismissing his bill against Bethia Symes, widow, John Symes and Elizabeth his wife, of Montserrat, Thomas Dorsett and William French, deputy provost marshals of Montserrat, Alexander Willcock, merchant of Antigua, and Walter Skerrett, merchant of Montserrat, to recover the principal and interest of a loan on the mortgage of Symes's plantation in the parish of St. Anthony.] [pp. 192, 337.]

(1769.) [On the Committee report of 13 March, the decree is reversed and directions given for selling the estate and taking accounts. Other names in the report are Alexander Gordon, Robert King, Henry Dyer and James Symes.]
